

K-Love serves my community by providing positive music for the children. What goes into the brain is revealed through actions. My children love the music and learn many positive life skills by listening to K-love. If this service were no longer available my children and I would not be able to listen to any other radio station and would miss out on current events.